

HOW TO HOST A BREAD TAGS FOR WHEELCHAIRS COLLECTION POINT

1. A collection point can be your home, workplace, a local business, church, or anywhere that is willing!
2. Get permission from the organisation if applicable.
3. If possible, get a container, e.g. cardboard box, baby wheelie bin, where people can put the tags. There is some signage below that you can use on the container.
4. Let us know your name / organisation name, state, suburb, email address and contact name and number. We will add this to our list of collection points. People wanting to drop off bread tags will contact you for your address, and opening hours if relevant.
5. When your collection of tags gets too large to manage, take it to our central collection point in your capital city – please check with us whether there is one yet, otherwise we'll need to make other arrangements.
6. Contact us on aussiebreadtags@gmail.com or on FB aussiebreadtags if you have any questions.
